

KEY HEADLINES:

The Indian rupee spot against the US dollar end higher on Thursday, thanks to fall in dollar index after previous day gain added by dollar sales by state banks and technical level support after fail to break resistance makes rupee on positive close.

The rupee at NSE Future 28 April-25. ended higher by 14 paise at 85.32 against previous close of 85.46 and after make low of 85.26 and high of 85.65.

The RBI is expected to keep sufficient surplus in the banking system to ensure policy transmission, and is looking at a level of around 1% of deposits, RBI Governor said earlier. The surplus works out to be in the range of 2.20 trillion rupees to 2.50 trillion rupees, while daily average banking system liquidity surplus stood at around 1.70 trillion rupees for this month. The 10-year benchmark bond yield was down 3 basis points at 6.41%, while the three-year and five-year bond yields fell 5-6 bps to 6.12% and 6.17% respectively.

The dollar staged a broad retreat on Thursday, as investor gloom over the lack of progress toward defusing the U.S.-China trade war reasserted itself following an interlude of optimism the previous day. U.S. assets, including the dollar, rallied on Wednesday after U.S. President backed down from threats to fire Federal Reserve Chair Jerome Powell and appeared to soften his stance on China.

By Thursday, those dollar gains had unravelled. China said no negotiations had been held on the economy and trade and it urged the U.S. to lift all unilateral tariff measures if it really wished to resolve the issue, leaving investors roughly where they were earlier in the week in terms of clarity.

The yen led the charge higher, leaving the dollar down 0.54% on the day at 142.700, but still above the 140-mark breached last week. The yen led the charge higher, leaving the dollar down 0.54% on the day at 142.700, but still above the 140-mark breached last week.

Markets swung to imply an approximately 55% chance of a Fed cut in May, and futures now point to more than 100 basis points worth of rate cuts by December this year .

Investors were previously expecting the Fed to keep rates on hold next month.

Economic Indicators to be released.
