- Nifty opened on a negative note and encountered sustained selling pressure throughout the session, resulting in a bearish engulfing candlestick that signals sellers gaining control over buyers. The index encountered resistance at the 24,500 level, while immediate support is positioned at 24,000; a break below this level could initiate further selling pressure towards 23,800. Additionally, the RSI is trending downward, reinforcing the current bearish momentum. Overall, these indicators reflect negative sentiment in the near term
