

Nifty50

Closing price	R1	R2	S1	S2
23,824.10	24,150	24,250	23,700	23,600

- Nifty witnessed a sharp rejection near the falling trend line resistance around 24,150–24,250 and formed a strong bearish candle, indicating profit booking at higher levels.
- The index has slipped back below its short-term moving averages (20-DEMA and 50-DEMA), highlighting weakening momentum in the near term.
- RSI has cooled to around 52, suggesting loss of bullish momentum after the recent pullback from resistance.
- Immediate support is placed at 23,700–23,600,
- On the upside, 24,150–24,250 remains the key resistance area, above which a sustainable recovery can emerge.

Bank Nifty

Closing price	R1	R2	S1	S2
57,183.75	57,900	58,200	56,200	56,000

- Bank Nifty faced rejection from the major resistance zone around 57,200–57,400 and formed a bearish candle after a strong recent rally.
- Despite the decline, the index continues to trade above its key short-term moving averages, indicating that the broader trend remains constructive.
- RSI has eased from overbought territory and is currently near 61, suggesting a healthy consolidation phase rather than a trend reversal.
- The breakout zone around 57,900–58,200 is likely to act as an important resistance area in the near term.
- Immediate support is seen at 56,000–56,200

Intraday call

Stock Name	Sell In Range	SL	TGT
AEGISVOPAK	238-236	244	205-200

Aegis Vopak has witnessed a sharp recovery from recent lows and is now approaching a crucial resistance zone near ₹236–238, where profit-booking pressure is emerging. The stock remains above its short-term moving averages, but the recent rejection near resistance coupled with an RSI reading around 62 indicates momentum may be cooling after the strong up move. Traders may consider selling in the ₹236–238 range with a stop loss above ₹244 on a closing basis. On the downside, the stock could witness a corrective move towards ₹220, while a deeper pullback may drag it towards the ₹205–200 zone. A decisive breakout above ₹244 would invalidate the bearish view and open the door for further upside.
