

Nifty50

Closing price	R1	R2	S1	S2
22912.40	23500	23800	22600	22200

- Relief Bounce Within Downtrend: Nifty has witnessed a short-term pullback after the recent sharp decline, but continues to trade below its key moving averages and broken support zone near 24,500, indicating the broader trend remains bearish.
- Momentum Recovery: RSI has bounced from oversold levels and is moving higher towards the mid-range, suggesting easing selling pressure; however, it still lacks strong bullish momentum for a reversal.
- Key Levels: Immediate resistance is placed near 23,500–23,800, while on the downside 22,600 acts as immediate support; a break below this could extend the fall towards 22,200.

Bank Nifty

Closing price	R1	R2	S1	S2
52605.65	53500	54500	51500	50500

- Relief Bounce Near Key Support: Bank Nifty has witnessed a sharp pullback after testing the crucial 51,000–50,500 support zone, indicating buying interest emerging at lower levels. However, the index still trades below key moving averages, keeping the broader trend weak.
- Momentum Recovery: RSI has rebounded from oversold levels and is gradually inching higher, suggesting easing bearish momentum. This supports the possibility of a short-term bounce but not a confirmed reversal yet.
- Key Levels: Immediate resistance is placed near 53,500–54,500, while on the downside 51,500 remains immediate support; a break below this could drag the index towards 50,500.

Intraday call

Stock Name	Buy In Range	SL	TGT
BAJFINANCE	855-860	833	895

BAJFINANCE is showing signs of intraday reversal after a sharp decline, with price reacting from a strong demand zone. The formation of a bullish candle supported by rising volumes indicates short covering and buying interest. RSI is recovering from oversold levels, suggesting improving momentum. For intraday, a sustained move above recent consolidation can trigger upside momentum. Fresh buying can be considered for a quick bounce, with cautious risk management.

Delivery call

Stock Name	Buy In Range	SL	TGT
ZYDUSWELL	445-448	423 (closing basis)	488

ZYDUSWELL is showing a bullish reversal setup, forming a symmetrical triangle pattern with price nearing breakout on the upside. The stock has reclaimed key short-term moving averages, indicating improving momentum. Volume expansion on recent up moves supports buying interest, while RSI is trending higher, reflecting strengthening momentum. Despite a broader bearish bias in moving averages, current price action suggests accumulation. A sustained breakout above the pattern can trigger fresh upside momentum, making it suitable for a positional buy with improving trend structure.
