LTP	R1	R2	S1	S2
59,777.2	60,100	60,500	59,200	59,000

- The Nifty index began the week on a strong footing at 26,325.30 but traded negatively through the first half. In the last two sessions, it attempted to recover the losses and eventually closed flat at 26,186.45.
- On the weekly chart, Nifty has formed a bullish candle, indicating buyer strength and active market participation. RSI is also showing improving momentum, supporting a positive near-term view.
- The overall market structure remains constructive, driven by solid fundamentals and favorable domestic cues. Key support levels are placed at 25,900 and 25,500, while resistance stands at 26,350 and 26,500. A decisive breakout above these levels could pave the way for further upside in the coming sessions.

BANKNIFTY

- The Bank Nifty index started the week on a strong note at 60,102.05, reflecting solid market sentiment and stability in the banking space. After witnessing a mild decline in the first two sessions, the index gradually recovered over the next three days and eventually closed flat at 59,777.20.
- On the weekly chart, Bank Nifty has formed a bullish candle, highlighting positive sentiment and strong buying interest. RSI continues to show healthy momentum with an upward bias.
- The broader outlook remains constructive, supported by robust credit growth and consistent earnings from leading banks. Key support levels are placed at 59,200 and 59,000, while resistance zones lie at 60,100 and 60,500. A sustained move above these levels could trigger fresh upward momentum in the near term.
